AND the Court thinks that the charge is proved, but is of opinion that having regard to the circumstances including the nature of the offence and the character and home surroundings of the offender it is expedient to release the offender on Probation, and

(a) the Court having convicted the offender.
(b) the Court without proceeding to conviction and having explained to the offender the effect of the order which it is proposed to make and the offender having expressed his willingness to comply with the provisions of such order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the offender be discharged subject to the following conditions:—

1. That the offender shall be of good behaviour for the period of _____ years and shall during the same period lead an honest and industrious life.
2. That the offender shall reside at _____ or with _____ for the period of _____ years.
3. That during the period of _____ years the offender shall be under the supervision of the Probation Officer of the Parish in which the offender resides and the offender shall observe the following conditions for securing such supervision, namely:—

- (i) That the offender shall receive at the place where he resides visits from the Probation Officer at such times as the Probation Officer may think fit;
- (ii) That the Offender shall report at the Office of the Probation Officer or at such other place as the Probation Officer shall direct, at times fixed by the Probation Officer;
- (iii) That the offender shall answer truthfully all questions put to him by the Probation Officer with regard to his conduct, associates, employment or residence;
- (iv) That the offender shall report immediately to the Probation Officer any change of residence or place of employment.

Additional conditions:

On breach of any of the conditions of this Order or on the conviction of the offender of an offence while this Probation Order is in force, the offender may be brought before the Court (c) to be sentenced, (d) to be convicted and sentenced for the offence for which this Probation Order is made.

N.B.—(a) and (b) strike out the word which is inapplicable.

(b) is only applicable where the offender is charged with an offence punishable on Summary Conviction.
